

Use of consolidated ownership of television stations for blatant electioneering defies the guiding principles of public ownership of the airways. This is too Soviet to be allowed in our Democracy.